

Chairman's Pen

My dear fellow exporters,

India is the official 'Partner Country' at the prestigious Hannover Fair in Germany being held during April 13 – 17, 2015. By accepting the invitation of German Chancellor Ms Angela Merkel for India to be the Partner Country at Hannover Messe 2015, the new Government has sent strong signals to the industry about strengthening global trade and inviting investment into India. Hon'ble Prime Minister Mr. Narendra Modi is expected to be present at the world renowned engineering and technology fair beginning April 12 conveying. The Department of Commerce has mandated the EEPC India as the lead agency supported by India Brand Equity Fund (IBEF) and CII for Indian participation in the fair.

Hannover Messe is the world's leading industrial technology exhibitions with 10 leading international trade fair taking place in parallel. The exhibition provides access to new products and technologies and has a huge international presence with close to 2,00,000 visitors from around the world. A number of Seminars will be organising at this exhibition such as Seminar on Make in India : Opportunities in Electronics & Electrical Sectors – The New Sunrise, Heavy Engineering & Motion, Drive and Automation : Investment and Business Opportunities, Smart Cities – the Urban Challenge, Sectoral Seminar on Indo-German Collaboration on Digital India, Resurgent Rajasthan Partnership Summit, Market Potential and Business Applications for Renewable energies & Energy Efficiency in India, Investment Opportunities in Maharashtra, Indo-German Business Summit / Hannover Messe 2015, Expert Seminar India – Germany: Towards a Strategy "Skilling India etc.
