EEPC India Invites Participation for India Pavilion at ITM Poland 2009, Poznan, Poland (16 - 19 June, 2009)

Poland is emerging as one of the most important destination of engineering goods and services from India. Indian engineering exports to Poland in 2007-08 grew by 88% over that of 2006-07. The total import of engineering goods and services in Poland is USD 72 Billion where India's share is meagre 0.27% only. The potential therefore is very large.

Taking into consideration the above, EEPC India invites you to participate in the most important and largest engineering exhibition in Poland. For further details please see the following information and registered at your earliest to get the best location.

About the exhibition

ITM Poland is the Central and Eastern Europe's largest fair of modern technologies of Industries. It has constantly strengthened its position as the largest show of modern industrial technologies. More than 1400 companies from 34 different countries had participated in ITM Poland 2008. The fair was visited by 22,000 professionals from 36 countries.

The exposition of ITM Poland 2009 has divided into following sectoral exhibitions:
