

EEPC Invites Participation for Manufacturing Indonesia 2007 Jakarta International Expo Kemayoran (5 - 8 December, 2007)

Major opportunities in Manufacturing Indonesia 2007 series (18th International Manufacturing Engineering Fair)

Manufacturing Indonesia, the only established truly international event for South East Asia's biggest industrial market has traditionally been a sold out event at the Jakarta International Expo Kemayoran. Keeping in view the overwhelming response from the exhibitors from 35 countries since, 2004 the organizers have had to provide an additional temporary hall to accommodate exhibitor demand. Keeping in mind the demand for the space in the exhibition, authorities have build a new large exhibition hall, for the 2007 event, which will allow the event to grow both in size and stature.

Major opportunities in Indonesia's Manufacturing Industries

The importance of the manufacturing sector is reflected in the 30.5% growth in the import of the Capital Goods and supporting industrial equipment worth over US$58 billion in 2005. Indonesia's manufacturing industries have grown by 28% since the end of the Asian financial crises in 2000 with a 5.6% growth predicted for 2006 and 8.3% by 2009. The manufacturing Indonesia Series of international exhibitions has been developed and refined since it's inception in 1987 and now the exhibitions reflects the major opportunities in Indonesia's industrial development.
