

Chairman's Pen

My dear fellow exporters,

The presentation ceremony for the EEPC India 42nd National Awards for Export Excellence 2009-10 was held on December 20, 2011 at New Delhi. Shri Jyotiraditya M Scindia, Hon'ble Minister of State for Commerce & Industry was the Chief Guest. Shri Scindia gave away the awards to 98 member-exporters under different categories. Shri Scindia mentioned that Indian engineering exports is aiming to achieve a greater share of the world market and EEPC's role assumes great significance in this regard.

Shri Scindia has been a constant pillar of strength for EEPC India and our members were delighted to receive their awards from this dynamic leader. His distinguished presence was a source of encouragement for EEPC India also which will continue in its endeavour in increasing engineering exports including by taking up with the Government for continuation of progressive economic measures.

Yours sincerely,

(AMAN CHADHA)
