Ideas Meet Action to Shape the Next Wave of Innovation in Indonesia and Beyond

What They Say ?

This exhibition is an excellent platform for technology enthusiasts, especially those interested in the future of technology like AI, to come together for discussions and collaboration. I hope that AIIS in Indonesia will have a positive impact on the technology industry, both in Indonesia and across the ASEAN region.

Setiaji, M.si

Chief Digital Transformation Office of Ministry of Health

This is actually the second time I've attended this exhibition. This year's event is more vibrant and larger than before, with many participants and exhibitors showing great enthusiasm for the AIIS exhibition. This clearly demonstrates that the AI industry is growing rapidly in Indonesia. I hope that by holding AIIS annually, it will bring significant advancements to Indonesia's technology industry.
