Modi era shifted India from corruption, casteism, dynastic politics to politics of performance: Shah

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

MUMBAI, SEPT 13: Union Home Minister Amit Shah on Sunday said the Centre under Prime Minister Narendra Modi has ushered in a new era of "politics of performance" by moving India away from the scourges of corruption, casteism and dynastic politics.

Addressing a press conference to announce the 'Seva Sankalp Abhiyan' from September 17 to October 17 to mark Modi's birthday and 25 years of Modi rule in Gujarat and Centre, Shah said the PM has freed the country from policy paralysis, coalition compulsions and poor decision-making. "Before 2014, Indian politics was suffering from three scourges - corruption, casteism and dynastic politics. In the political era from 2014 to 2026, these three have ended and the people have moved the country towards a politics of performance," he said.

The campaign, whose slogan is "Jan Seva Hi Prabhav Seva" (public service is service to God), will seek to promote people's participation in the goal of making India a developed country by 2047, he said. Shah said the last 25 years had witnessed "epoch-making" changes in Gujarat and the country, including in infrastructure and poverty reduction. He said the political system had also undergone a fundamental transformation. "PM Modi has freed the country from policy paralysis, coalition compulsions and poor decision-making," he said. Shah said the BJP and its allies and people across the country will jointly organise the month-long campaign from September 17, Modi's birthday. He said the BJP had previously celebrated Modi's birthday as 'Seva Saptah' from September 17 to October 2, and in some places for a week, but this year's celebrations will be special as Modi will complete 25 years in public office as chief minister and prime minister on October 7.

"Very few leaders in this country have a record of serving the people continuously for 25 years as chief minister of a state and prime minister of the country," Shah said, adding that Modi had repeatedly won elections and kept the public service and welfare of the state and nation going continuously for 25 years. The campaign will have 12 major programmes, including blood donation and lamp-lighting drives, painting and speech competitions for young people, beneficiary interactions, motorcycle yatras between Vadnagar, Modi's birthplace in Gujarat, and Varanasi, his Lok Sabha constituency, and events aimed at ensuring saturation of government welfare schemes. It will also feature 'Seva Ke Rang' (Rashtra Ke Sang), described by Shah as the world's largest human-group rangoli initiative and a 'Seva First Innovation Challenge' involving five regional measures, including free foodgrains to 81 crore people, 58 crore bank accounts, healthcare cover of up to Rs 5 lakh for 44 crore people, tap water connections to 16 crore households, Rs 6,000 annually under PM-Kisan to 13 crore farmers and toilets in 13 crore households. He also cited Ujjwala gas connections, housing and women's self-help groups as examples of welfare initiatives. India's infrastructure had also undergone rapid expansion, with the development of roads, railways, airports, metros, ports, waterways and digital infrastructure. Shah said the number of airports had risen from around 75 to 150 and talked about dedicated freight corridors, Vande Bharat trains and innovation competitions, he said. Shah said the country had witnessed a strong foreign and defence policy based on the principle of 'India First', while the economy had moved from being counted among the 'Fragile Five' to the top five globally. He also cited a 7.8 per cent GDP growth in the first quarter as evidence of India's strong economic performance. He credited GST, the Jan Dhan-Aadhaar-Mobile trinity, banking reforms, FDI, the Production Linked Incentive scheme and 'Make in India' with strengthening the country's economy and manufacturing capabilities. Shah said 25 crore people had been brought out of poverty and listed welfare improved border connectivity. He highlighted the Nari Shakti Vandan Adhiniyam providing for 33 per cent reservation for women in Parliament and state legislatures, and cited women's participation in the armed forces, police, science, startups, drones and sports. The Union minister said the government had also given greater importance to Indian languages, adopted a strong response to terror attacks and resolved issues such as Article 370. Left-wing extremism and security challenges in the Northeast. He said surgical strikes, air strikes and Operation Sindoor had established a policy of "zero tolerance" towards terrorism.

The Union minister said projects such as the Ayodhya Ram temple, Kashi Vishwanath Dham, Mahakal Lok and the development of Kedarnath reflected the government's efforts to develop centres of faith. He also cited the new Parliament building, Sengol (historic golden sceptre), Chandrayaan-3, Aditya-L1, One Rank One Pension and the creation of the Chief of Defence Staff among the government's achievements. On foreign policy, Shah said India's standing in the world had risen significantly, citing Vaccine Maitri, trade agreements and India's leadership of the G20 and BRICS.

"Whatever the problem in the world, the view of India's Prime Minister matters today," he said.

Over 16,800 police personnel deployed across Mumbai for Ganesh festival

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

MUMBAI, SEPT 13: More than 16,800 police personnel, including senior officers and quick response units, have been deployed across Mumbai to ensure safe and peaceful celebrations during the 10-day Ganesh festival, an official said on Sunday. The massive security grid, comprising seven additional commissioners, 37 deputy commissioners, 52 assistant commissioners and 2,650 officers, will maintain strict vigil across key Ganesh pandals and public places throughout the metropolis, the official said. In addition to the regular force, platoons of the State Reserve Police Force (SRPF), Quick Response Teams (QRT), Riot Control Teams, and Home Guards will be deployed at key locations for the festival, which begins on September 14 and culminates on September 25.

Special arrangements have also been planned for idol immersion days, with additional security personnel being assigned to manage crowds and traffic, he said.

Udhayanidhi dubs Vijay as 'dummy and uncouth' CM

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

CHENNAI, SEPT 13: Leader of Opposition Udhayanidhi Stalin on Sunday termed C. Joseph Vijay as a "dummy and uncouth chief minister" and accused the ruling dispensation of governance failures, including widespread power cuts, and deteriorating law and order. Addressing the wedding of a DMK Youth Wing functionary here, he alleged that the ruling regime had failed to deliver on any of its election promises during its initial four months in office. "In Tamil Nadu's history, we have never witnessed such an uncouth and dummy chief minister," Udhayanidhi said, alleging that the government came to power by luring MLAs from other parties. He charged that the current administration was simply rebranding and "pasting stickers" on public welfare schemes initiated during the previous DMK government rather than introducing new initiatives.

"Today, people across Tamil Nadu are grappling with daily crises, from frequent power cuts and surging prices of essential commodities like rice and pulses to worsening law and order."

SC asks murder accused to be produced in court after 'victory procession' over bail

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

NEW DELHI, SEPT 13: Taking a stern view of a murder accused taking out a "victory procession" on being granted bail by the high court, the Supreme Court has directed Haryana Police to produce him before the court. A bench of justices Vikram Nath and Sandeep Mehta also recorded in its order that despite a non-bailable warrant being issued against the accused, he has not been produced in custody. It took note of the submission of counsel for the complainant that the accused, Vishal, had taken out a "victory procession" after being granted bail by the Punjab and High Court and had threatened witnesses. On September 8, when the matter was taken up for hearing, the bench noted that the accused was represented by his counsel. The bench directed the accused to surrender and then seek bail, pulling him up for taking out the "victory procession" on being granted bail. "We will hear you once you surrender and then seek bail. Taking out a victory procession on bail is not right," it said. The bench noted that the non-bailable arrest warrant issued in August has not been executed and the accused has not been arrested by the police. It added that the warrant could not be executed for reasons which the court was not going into at present.

"However, we direct the superintendent of police, district Charkhi Dadri, Haryana to ensure that a non-bailable warrant is executed and respondent no 2 is produced before this court on the next date, which is being fixed as September 21, 2026," the top court ordered. It directed the registry to forward a copy of the order be forwarded to the SP within 24 hours by email and other modes. The high court granted bail to the accused in the murder case on April 23. The incident took place on October 27, 2022, following which Vishal was arrested and kept in custody for over three years.

The altercation between the accused and family members of complainant, Rajbala, took place after Vishal allegedly started constructing tin sheds on a disputed plot of land. During one heated exchange, Vishal allegedly hit several people with lathi and axe, grievously injuring several persons belonging to the complainant's side, one of whom died. The high court rejected the bail petition of Vishal four times but accepted it the fifth time after it was pointed out that material witnesses have been examined in the case and he has spent over three years in custody.
