Dear Sir / Madam,

Training Programme on GST (20 Hrs)

Goods and Services Tax (GST), a revolutionary tax reform is set to become a reality in July 2017 and will subsume the current Indirect taxes in India. Since the current Indirect Tax Laws will undergo a change, the industry will have to unlearn and relearn the entire law once again. GST will transform the way businesses are being done and hence, it is imperative for organisations of all segments to understand the basic features of the law and its respective impact on the business.

Keeping in mind the industry demand EEPC INDIA is organising an Intensive training programme on GST for 20 hours. The course will give an in-depth knowledge on GST framework as currently envisaged and the manner in which businesses need to prepare themselves for a smooth transition to GST. It will also provide an understanding of the intricacies of law so that business strategies could be formulated and necessary business realignments can be done in advance.
